JUNE 16th, 2021

4pm - 5:30pm

ONLINE VIA ZOOM

Emergency powers granted by the Florida legislature to condominium association board members, for use during a “state of emergency” were intended for hurricanes and other disasters. However, during the recent pandemic, Florida board members were also granted emergency powers, to make necessary decisions during the crisis. Join us for this comprehensive discussion about the current laws in place for emergency powers available to your board members.
